3.6. 3 Number of extension and outreach programs conducted in collaboration with industry, community and Non- Government Organisations through NSS/NCC/Red cross/YRC etc., during the last five years (10)

Adoption of backward areas

The Directorate of Lifelong Learning, University of Kashmir identified and adopted some areas wrapped in illiteracy and socio-economic backwardness under the umbrella of extension education and Area Based Community Development Approach (ABCD) of UGC. These areas include:

1. Mir Behri Saidakadal in the interiors of Dal Lake Area (Srinagar)

2 Village Dawar in Gurez, Bandipora District.

3.Lassipora Village in Pulwama District

Adoption of Mir Behri Saidakadal in the interiors of Dal Lake Area in 2012-13 onwards

The Directorate of Lifelong Learning (DLL) has been on the forefront in the overall development of the unreached and deprived locales which entail the urban status, but when looked from the prismatic point of view of development, they hardly score anything. DLL in one such model adopted an area of Saida Kadal(Mir Behri) few Kilometres away from the University campus under the scheme of Area Based Community Development(ABCD) approach of UGC, New Delhi.In the initial phase of the programme, a skill school was thrown open for the youth of the particular area, where they learnt various skill based courses and earned a certification in the respective skill trades. Also getting other basic amenities related to health, education, counseling together with the awareness generation and capacity building programmes.The step has been lauded by all walks of life.

Following skill based courses were organized in the said area

skill Development for Employability – Best Practices

If the University system has to discharge adequately its mandate to the entire education system, industry and to the society as a whole it must assume skill development as an important responsibility. The University of Kashmir through Directorate of Lifelong Learning has offered plethora of professional/ vocational courses both within the University campus and in the various communities in Srinagar and other districts of Kashmir valley for larger interests and employability of the youth. It plans these courses after a preliminary survey and consultation with various stakeholders in a given area. The need assessment survey offers the Directorate insights into the most critical employment need of the youth. The Directorate has thus responded to the diverse aspirations of the youth and other learners; such aspirations range from employability in the local industry, market and development of entrepreneurship, and other livelihood earning ventures. The Directorate has opened up a model window for unemployed youth in the valley by introducing the following appropriate job oriented, income generating, skill-based courses over the years in different sectors detailed as below:
