

3-Day Workshop on Voluntary Work and Child Development concludes in KU

3- Day workshop on Voluntary Work and Child Development, organized by Directorate of Lifelong Learning (DLL), University of Kashmir concluded here.

The workshop was aimed to involve voluntary organizations working in the valley to come on the common platform to work on the various modalities for the upliftment of the children of weaker sections.

Various aspects of voluntary work, including role and problems faced by the children with special needs were discussed threadbare in many technical sessions by the experts from various fields of voluntary work.

PowerPoint presentations related to disabilities among children, their rehabilitation, inclusive education and multiple schemes and welfare programmes of social welfare Department for the children were presented in a 3-Day long workshop.

The conclusive session of the workshop was presided over by Dean Social Sciences, University of Kashmir Prof. M.A.Wani. Prof. Wani lauded the role played by DLL in reaching to the unreached section of the society and stressed upon all the stakeholders of Voluntary work to organize such workshops in future also for the greater benefit of the society.

Many experts in social & extension work including noted social work activist and psychologist Prof. A.G.Madhosh, Director DLL, Dr. G. H.Mir ,Chairman IRRT, Advocate A.R. Hunjura, District Social Welfare Officer , Ganderbal , Mr. Qazi Irfan;Chairman, Humanity Welfare organization, Mr. Javed Tak , Associate Professor , CRC, Dr . Zaffar Iqbal, representatives from Madar-e Meharban Welfare Institute, Miskeen Bagh, various NGO's and Faculty members of DLL witnessed the workshop .

Programme Incharge, Dr.Shinera Sajad concluded the proceedings of the workshop with Vote of Thanks.Later Certificates were distributed among the participants of the workshop.